

Do you love the taste of home-grown veggies?
Do you enjoy gardening, but lack a sunny yard?
Do you have doubles of some gardening tools?
Do you grow more produce than you can eat?
Do you wish you knew more local gardeners?
The Farmer's Garden is the solution!

The Farmer's Garden is an online place to make in-person connections with other local gardeners. Search and post free classified ads to share excess homegrown produce, tools, or gardening space with people in your area. Food pantries can also post wanted classifieds for surplus food. Read our weekly blog for helpful gardening tips and advice.
